

EU-UK Future relationship – Ceemet 'no-deal' planning overview: Italy

A track record of speaking up for employers

Since 2016 Ceemet and all its members have been campaigning for the best deal for manufacturers and ensured that they are in the most informed position to advise the industry on the EU-UK Future Relationship and its impacts.

Despite various calls to negotiators to exclude a 'no-deal scenario, the last one dates from 12 October 2020, 'the signs point towards that direction.

Hence, Ceemet and its members provide an overview of the 'no-deal' planning that are being made in the member countries with the links directing to the relevant pages. This document provides additional information for one country.

Links to information from Italian authorities

- Bank of Italy: Here, you can find a communication in English that summarises the relevant features of the Italian third-country licensing regime, which will apply to all UK intermediaries once the transition period has ended.
- The Italian Customs and Monopolies Agency: Here you can find a FAQ in English.

About Ceemet

- Ceemet represents the metal, engineering and technology-based industry employers in Europe.
- Member organisations represent 200,000 companies in Europe, providing over 17 million direct and 35 million indirect jobs.
- Ceemet is a recognised European social partner at the industrial sector level, promoting global competitiveness for European industry through consultation and social dialogue.